Turn-in 1:00pm-Krazy Flats Entry Fee $20.00

UPDATED GUIDELINES

Good day to all. After consideration and some great suggestions from members, there is going to be a change in the process of this cookoff that we feel will allow much more creativity and fairness overall.

At registration, you will be given a container that will be suited to your entry for tasting. If you are making a dish that is runny or liquid, you will be given a bowl with a lid. If it is not, you will receive a styro clamshell.

For Presentation: You will need to create a separate, decorative presentation for your dish. You will have a space that is 30" x 18" to work with. You may create any presentation for your dish that will fit in this space. Please remember, that in this space, your presentation, your tasting container and a small box will occupy this space. You must furnish all items for your presentation.

At registration, you will be given two (2) recipe cards. One card is to be included in your presentation, the other card will be placed in an envelope and given to the organizer at turn in. You will have until 1pm to set up your presentation. Once you have completed your presentation, a picture will taken of you with your dish and presentation.

If at all possible, please display the Chili Powder box in your presentation.

Rules:
New CASI Chili Mix will be provided.
You can make chili and use it in some way, you just can't turn in a cup of chili. You must use the CASI mix in some way.
You must turn two (2) recipe cards with your entry.
Pictures will be taken of your entry and you with your entry at turn in.
Recipe cards will be furnished at registration.
