PLEASE READ ANY ONLINE INSTRUCTIONS

In the Cook's name field you will begin to enter their last name. A list of names will appear. It may be necessary to put in the last name with a comma and start typing the first name before the full list appears. (Doe, John). Choose the correct name. Review the address. If the address is incorrect click on the Cook's ID field and choose the next one until you find the correct name/address combination. If you find that the correct name has an old address click the "Address Change needed" box below and the TallyMaster will make the necessary correction during the approval process. If the cook auto qualifies at this cook off click the box next to "Cook Auto Qualified?" Click submit and the system will move you to the next place. Do this for all 10 chili places.

If a cook is not listed you will need to add their name. Click on Add Name and follow the instructions and complete all fields. The name should then appear in the Cook's name field when you start to type their last name.

1st Place Chili

NOTE: While entering results for each place DO NOT click the back button. If you believe you have made an error you will be able to fix it at the end when you receive the results report. If you use the ADD name option for new cooks after you submit the addition you need to enter the name in the winners space. You will see the name in the drop down as you enter the letters of the last name.

Add Name

When you enter the name begin with typing the last name first. Use a comma between Last and First (Doe, John) A list will appear with the names for selection. Once the name is selected if the address is incorrect click on the Cook's ID and select the next ID. The address will appear. Select the ID that matches the address for your winner. If you have the correct cook with an old address click the button below for address change. The TallyMaster will then correct the address during the approval process.

Submit Chili Results

The show results operates similar to the chili results. You will be entering the Captain's name and verifying the address and show team name. Click on the Captain's ID just as you do the cooks ID if you need to select another name/address. If the show team name is incorrect this can be fixed in the report step later. If the Captain is a new cook and/or does not show in the listing do the same as chili and click the Add Name and follow the instructions

1st Place Show

NOTE: While entering results for each place DO NOT click the back button. If you believe you have made an error you will be able to fix it at the end when you receive the results report. If you use the ADD name option then after you submit the addition you enter the name in the winners space. You will see the name in the drop down as you enter the last name letters. If no Show Team is on record for this Captain or the name is incorrect continue on and you will be able to add that name on your final step of review.
