From the CASI ED...

Bittersweet greetings to you all.

Like Kris last month, I too realized that this would be my last article as Executive Director of CASI. For five years now I have tried to do the best job I could for an organization that has given me so much. A few months back on My Memories that FB does, the pictures from Ginger Caswell's benefit cookoff popped up. It was at that cookoff that my life would be changed for the next four years; make it five. Sorry gang, this is a long one.

I have been extremely fortunate to have a fantastic partner in crime over the last five years. I can't say enough about the passion, the commitment, the dedication and the friendship that Kris has given and continues to give CASI. Unlike me, Kris was born with a judging spoon in his mouth. We have a connection that one can only hope to have in their lifetime. If you do not believe me, talk to Shelley and Michael. He is my confidant, my level-headed dissident, my devil's advocate and many times my inspiration. I could tell him an idea and immediately he would begin to tweak the idea, offer suggestions and many times that would lead to a complete change in thinking and direction. Together as a team, we have been able to guide this organization through the ups and downs, the good and the bad and help move CASI forward in its direction and evolution through these years. I could never have wished to have a better friend to have spent this time with and I am the better for having him in my life.

Beginning in early 2020, we were hit with COVID. Immediately, the discussions began about the what-ifs. We managed to navigate those waters and remain in the black financially…much to the disappointment of some. We are still financially stable at this date. I ask you one thing, when you hear a dissident voice say that we are broke or in a dismal state, do your own thinking and investigating for answers and don't follow the Negative Nellies. Trust me, the financials are out there for anyone to look at. Make your own decisions.

We are preparing for the 54th TICC, and at the same time we are looking at an exciting new change in the Board. You are getting a new ED, a new President and five positions are being filled. I have spoken with the incoming ED weekly over these last couple of months. I believe that there will be a very smooth transition and I have told Brian that I will be available to answer, and do what he needs. It is important that there is a working relationship between the former and the incoming to ensure that the information he is receiving is correct, true and detailed; not hearsay or outdated opinions from a long bygone era.

Kris already covered the Trails and Facilities Usage fee. The only thing I have to add is that if you want the printed and mailed Terlingua Trails to return, I am sure CASI would be more than happy to have you donate the $25K each year it would now take to produce.

There have been many people over these years that I owe a huge debt of gratitude to. Thank you Richard and Carol Knight…it has been an honor and a privilege to get to know you and work with you. Thank you Richard for your advice and direction when I needed it. All I had to do was call or email and you were there for me.

Dave Hewlett…yeah I know…surprised you are in here? You shouldn't be…Thank you for all your help over these years.

Ted and Sunny Fichtl…as with Richard, Ted you were always available for advice, scripting rough drafts of ideas and answering any and all questions with that straight-forward way you have.

Donna and Dianne…I have known you since you first joined. You have always been a huge supporter and friend and I appreciate everything you have done over these years not only for me, but for the membership as well.

Brandy, Dianne and Ceci… you have been with me since the beginning and there is no way I could have done this job without your help and dedication and commitment. A special thank you to Dianna Hoy. I could always go to Dianna and she would do her best to execute whatever hair-brained idea I came up with. Only once did she tell me no. You know what these years have meant to me and I appreciate your time, talent and friendship. You always have the best interest of CASI at heart and I can't thank you enough.

To my "special friends"… you have been my support and more importantly my family. You have always understood that I walk a very fine line between friendship and ED. You have always understood that decisions made during these years were for the organization…not personal… while you didn't always agree with them, you respected the position they were coming from and I couldn't love you more for that. This job is hard enough without losing your friends. I have always said that if the people that call you "friend" cannot separate friendship and responsibility, then they weren't your friend to begin with. You have been there for me during the good and the bad, with and without the stool; and have listened to the anger, frustration, rants and talked me off the ledge so to speak of when I needed it.

Shelley…thank you for support and friendship and love. Little did you know what a package deal you were getting…thank you for your encouragement and friendship SP. Ya' know I love ya'.

To the one person in my life that made it possible for me to undertake this position and supported me unconditionally. When I began this journey, you were the one that encouraged me; you were the one that would question the ideas; you were the one that made me see the voice of reason when I was on the edge; you were the one that would listen, make no comment, trust me to make the correct decision and support me whether it was right or wrong. Michael, you are my rock, my support, my friend and my anchor. UKW.

And lastly…to the CASI Membership. I really do not know what to say. I came into the position when there was tension and turmoil. The one thing I knew was that CASI needed a rest. I have tried over these year to do just that. I hope that I have listened to your ideas, your suggestions, your complaints…I have tried to move CASI in a positive, creative, more up to date direction over these years. I could not have done this job without the support of the CASI membership. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you for a wonderful ride.

TALLYMASTER REPORT

Chili Year 2020–2021

As I reported in January's Trails, your TallyMaster and CASI IT team successfully completed merging all the 2019–2020 cookoff data into the 2020–2021 chili year. This month's issue has up-to-date traditional state statistics, qualifiers in chili and showmanship, along with all the cookoff results tallied for the current 2020–2021 chili year.

I want to hear from you in the event assistance is needed. If you have any questions, suggestions, and/or comments, I'm here to listen. Feel free to contact me at brianspencer@casichili.net or, if you prefer talking, I can be reached at 409-658-3440.

Missouri State Chili Championship 2021

Steve Dowdy Memorial Chili Cook-off

The Missouri State Chili Championship, Steve Dowdy Memorial Chili Cook-off went off without a hitch. Five states were represented to make this a challenging cook-off. The weather was very hot. But the Promoter at the Grandview Elks Made it possible for us to cook inside, despite having a wedding reception scheduled for later that day!

The promoter is very welcoming to all the chili cooks, Yea, Bloody Marys at 8am!!!!

We have a first time winner of the Missouri State. You should have heard her SCREAM!! LOL

So here we go: 10th-Joe Giles, 9th-Cecilia Rivera, 8th-Lorinda Crawford, 7th-Evert Crawford. 6th-Jerri Dowdy, 5th-Rhonda Millsap. 4th-Colleen the Toad Lintner. 3rd-Peggy Kirk Velasquez, 2nd-Marty Williams, and your new Missouri State Champion, Lori McLaughlin!

Illinois State Chili Championship 2021 & Chillini Pod Cook-off

By Bill Pierson, BATAVIA, IL—This weekend was a very special one for some of our favorite cooks. Kim Spencer won the Illinois State Cook-off, but since Kim lives in Iowa, as does second place Brian Spencer, Jim Weller is the high placing state resident and thus the 2021 Illinois State Champion which was long overdue. We contested four different events Saturday, and Debra Hunt placed in all four: Peoples Choice, first; Traditional, third, Showmanship, second; CASI Chili, seventh. That is a full day, and Debra was a show-stopper. The Traditional category was won by Kristin Dahnert, who also won CASI Show, with Spicy Mike Usiak taking second. It was a great day, a little warm, but the Batavia Park District and Chamber of Commerce did a great job hosting the event. Now, the rest of the story:

area, and proved to be an excellent site for a chili cook-off. And the beat goes on: Debra continued her big weekend with a second in showmanship and her first first place. She is now a Chillini Pod Champion. I would love to repeat her reaction, but this is a family publication. WE were very glad to have our newest pod members; Dean Stronach and Joe Ritchart drop down from Wisconsin and entertain us with the Chili Dog Show. That was, without a doubt, the most exciting show I have ever witnessed at a 17-cook cook-off. The cook-off featured Tim Hoffman's really cool trophies. The weather had threatened storms all weekend, and we almost made it. Just as our pod meetings wrapped up, the sky opened up, but just for a few minutes. The Pod winners:

Never been to a Great Peppers' Meeting?

Well… you should put it on your bucket list! CASI members are always welcomed to join the audience and watch your Great Peppers and Board of Directors work on the business side of the CASI organization.

So, you're not able to make it to a Great Peppers' Meeting, then you can find information under the GPM tab on the CASI Website; such as meeting schedules and agenda. Also, after approval of the minutes from the meetings, the minutes can be found under the Members Only tab. Another benefit of being a CASI member.

Your feedback is always welcomed. Submit any and all questions about the casichili.net website or where to find some CASI-related information and we can include the answer each month. You can use the "IT Help Desk" button found under "Contact Us" or via my email: casichilied@gmail.com.

From the Champ: One Month to Go!

With one month to go in the chili year, you are either taking it easy and dreaming of the TICC or putting the throttle down to make as many cook-offs as possible to get those last few points. There are still a lot of Pod and State cook-offs on the calendar, but no matter how you plan to finish off your chili year, good luck and stay safe!

I have two more cook-offs on my calendar before October; SOT Pod in Bastrop and the New Mexico Ladies State.

Last month I was a little light on cook-off attendance, but Cowtown in Grapevine, Texas was fun. My Uncle and my cousins had never been to a cook-off and wanted to see what it was all about. They saw how I cooked chili and then judged. No wonder I didn't place. When they came back from judging and tasted my chili my Uncle gave me a SIX and said he was being nice!

The weather didn't cooperate, canopies were destroyed and Doc lost his pot of chili but we all survived. As the tornado sirens were wailing, the crazy chili cooks were holding on to their canopies and stoves.

A huge thank you to Kris Stewart who went above and beyond her responsibilities of Chairperson of the Champion Travel Committee who helped hold my canopy down getting completely drenched in the process. I guess if the winds had really come up we could have traveled together to the next county.

I am trying to refrain from dusting off my "Terlingua List" which is drastically modified from the original Pat Krenek version. There are just some things on that original list I never needed or am too damn old to use.

Qualified or not I hope I see you at the TICC. Just the week of friendship is worth the trip.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM REPORT

Howdy from the Lone Star State!

Last month I started another new chapter in my chili life. Most of you are already aware that I got selected to take on the position as the Scholarship Administrator. I am excited but also overwhelmed in the fact that CASI is putting their faith and trust in me to take on this position and challenge. I have put the boots on the ground, taken the bull by the horns and will do my best to not mess up, BUT please have patience with me while I learn the ins and outs of this position.

I want to thank Brandy Reid for doing this for three years and Nancy Hewlett for all her patience! More to come in regards to a very exciting Scholarship fund raiser and getting ready to find those kiddos that need a little assistance.

See y'all around the next chili pot,

Make No Mistake!

By Bill Pierson
Senior Referee
Volume 5, Number 9

A state championship cookoff being won by a non-resident cook has become rather common recently. Just this summer, state championships from Indiana to Colorado have been won by non-resident cooks. This is a good thing, I believe. It shows cooks are getting out, expanding the CASI family. However, I have been made aware of some confusion on who, actually, is the state champion. Let's see if I can clear this up, or add to the confusion.

The definition of champion is, a winner of first place in a competition. Pretty straight forward, right? But CASI Rules take a different view when it comes to a "state champion." Prior to 2005 CASI recognized the top three resident cooks at a state championship for qualification to TICC (VII.D.1a). If a non-resident cook should place first, they would still get the four points, but recognition of state champion went to resident cooks. In 2005 the rule was modified to allow a non-resident cook, placing first, to also receive a TICC qualification. This was done to encourage cooks to travel to other states. The addition of this provision did nothing to diminish the status of the resident cooks. A number of states do not recognize their resident state champion, and they do not have to. But make no mistake, as far as CASI is concerned, the state champion is the resident state champion.

September marks the end of another chili year, and what a year it was. It started under the cloud of a pandemic, then emerged from that cloud with the light of summer. Now, storm clouds are re-appearing on the horizon. We must be vigilant and take all the necessary precautions to keep those clouds away. No one wants to go back to 2020.

September is the end of the 2020 points carryover special rule, so come October first, we all have zero points.

September is also host to the annual Great Peppers Meeting, and this one will see a big change at the top of CASI with a new President and Executive Director. I want to acknowledge the job that Kris and Keith have done leading us through this unusually difficult period. I hope everyone appreciates, as I do, the job you have done for the organization. You deserve your retirement.

CASI UPCOMING EVENTS CASI

Some people have contacted me about their cookoffs not being in the Trails. Cookoffs must be submitted before the 15th of the month in the month before the Cookoff date to be listed in Upcoming Events. Remember, to meet the cookoff advertising requirement, upcoming cookoffs must be publicized in the Terlingua Trails in the month prior to the event OR be approved and appear on the official calendar 30 days prior to the date of the cookoff. The website always is the most current list of events.

You may enter your information at www.casichili.net or you can complete the Upcoming Cookoff Information form found in the Trails and send it by mail to me at CASI Events, 802 Horizon Dr., Murphy, TX 75094, or by email to casievent@casichili.net.

If you have any questions you can reach me at 214-802-8194. Be sure to use the form online to submit or the form located in the Trails. The older versions do not have all the necessary information. Often email addresses, telephone numbers and addresses are left off and I must have them.

When you do not request a rule book or tickets, you will not be mailed a packet. You will instead receive an email with the necessary forms for the cookoff. Please print out the forms and be sure to fill in your event number, date, name and place.

Charity: 9 Different Charities in Wabash County. The Chili for Charity Cook-Off is a day of fun for everyone involved, both participants and visitors who wander from booth to booth tasting chili and voting for their favorites. Some teams do straight chili preparation, while others create a theme to go with their chili. You should plan on preparing a minimum of 5 to 7 gallons of chili for public sampling. The reason people attend this event is to taste the chili from the cooks! Don't forget props, costumes and other gear for "showmanship". You can set up on Friday, October 15th - space assignments will be posted on Friday morning at the Park Shelter OR you will receive your booth space assignment when you check-in at the Registration Booth on Saturday morning. >>>Note: If you set up on Friday, your Head Cook still needs to check-in at the Registration booth on Saturday morning. --- NO VEHICLES on the inner side of the paved loop, except to unload & load. --- We will furnish one 8-foot table per team, no chairs. You may want to bring additional tables for cooking & serving. > This is a family event, alcoholic beverages must not be visible to the public outside of the beer tent area. Safety Rules Pertaining To Cooking Sites: > Covered areas (e.g. tents, canopies, etc.) and props may not exceed 20'L x 10'W x 12'H > No part of the display shall be greater than 12' tall. > All tents, canopies, and props shall be securely staked. > All propane tanks shall be securely staked to prevent tipping (Indiana State Fire Marshall Regulation). > All vehicles shall be a minimum of 10' away from any open flame (Indiana State Fire Marshall Regulation). > All campfires shall be a minimum of 10' away from any tent or structure AND all campfires must be in an above ground container or in a fire ring. Anticipated attendance is 10,000. Enclose a check for $25. Mail to: Wabash Cannonball Chili for Charity, Inc., P.O. TASM's mission to "preserve Oklahoma's aerospace heritage to inspire science-based learning through discovery" began in May 1998 in a 1940's hangar on the Spartan School of Aeronautics' campus and later opened its doors in the current location in 2005 and then opened in 2006. Since then, over 600,000 visitors have walked through those doors to learn and discover Oklahoma's rich history in aviation and aerospace. TASM is not only a museum and planetarium but is also an engaging learning center as well. TASM provides K-12 STEM Engagement educational programs intended to inspire underprivileged schoolchildren in Oklahoma in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics, and act as a pipeline to fill the skills gap in the aviation and aerospace industry workforce. It is their goal to reach as many students as possible in order to give them a chance at a bright future. In 2018, more than 31,000 school children visited TASM to participate in the educational programs giving these children access to material, facilities, and quality educational program from the facilities. Come and join us at TASM this October for an event you will never forget! Contact: Mike Mayenschein 928-272-8905 mikes2ndwind@yahoo.com

Free Quarter Page Ad for CASI Pod, State, Regional, and National Open Cookoffs

All CASI Pods are required to conduct a pod cookoff once a year. To help advertise your pod cookoff, you may run a quarter-page ad in the month your cookoff occurs. This courtesy is also extended to State, Regional, and National Open cookoffs. If you want an ad larger than a quarter page, or you wish to run it more than once, we will bill you for the difference in price. (This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Upcoming Events" section. That article starts to run in the next issue after your cookoff is registered and continues until your cookoff occurs.)

EVERY COOKOFF RECEIVING A FREE AD IS REQUIRED BY CASI POLICY TO SUBMIT AN ARTICLE AND PHOTOS TO THE TERLINGUA TRAILS AFTER THE EVENT. IF NO NEWS ABOUT THE COOKOFF IS SUBMITTED WITHIN 60 DAYS AFTER THE EVENT, IT WILL BE BILLED FOR THE FULL COST OF THE AD.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE is the 15th of EACH MONTH.
