Malcolm Williams Takes First!

Bryan Hebert and 1st Place Winner, Malcolm Williams

The Holidays are the perfect opportunity to spend time with family and friends and renew old acquaintances. What better place to spend it than a Chili cookoff? That is just what Malcolm Williams, Beaumont, TX, did at the Houston Pod Christmas Cookoff on December 18th. Malcolm met up with his

From the President

My how time flies when you're having fun! By the time you receive this Trails, we will be approaching the 5th month of the chili year with Terlingua just around the corner. From reviewing the previous issues, Facebook, and the blog, I know that many of you are already qualified for TICC 2011 and some are very close to qualifying. Wish I could say the same, but there's still lots of time – right?

The Board had their winter Board Meeting on January 29 and reports should be out on discussion and actions taken. What some of you may not know is that much of the work for TICC is done at the winter Board Meeting. One day is spent in workshop form reviewing the previous TICC and determining how the event can be made bigger & better. If at any time you have suggestions or comments (good or bad), please share them with a Board member or me. We welcome your input.

I spent New Year's weekend attending the Kingsland Cookoffs. A great time was had by all! We ate, played, visited, and cooked chili. Who can ask for more? The most fun was when Saturday night rolled around and everyone donned their pajamas for an evening of "screw your neighbor", "tonk", "farkle", "dominoes" and just visiting. If you see Tim Collier, ask him about his visit to the men's room.

While it was cold outside, the warmth and hospitality of the cooks and promoters more than warmed us. You know it's cold when you open your ice chest and there's a layer of ice on the ice in the chest.

A cold weekend again awaited us at the Bastrop American Legion Cookoff. But it wasn't cold enough to dampen anyone's spirits. As usual, Crystal and her crew made everyone feel welcome and right at home.

If you see Sue Caffey ask her about the mayonnaise treatment for her hair at The Roadhouse on Friday night. Also ask Doc & Carrie Kinnison and Mayo Blair about the free food they "almost" got.

Let's keep those in our prayers who have been ill and also those who have recently lost loved ones. Our chili family is awesome and never forgets those in need.

Until we see each other down the chili trail, keep supporting the charities, getting those points, and being the great folks you all are.

Renee

Reflections from the ED

This Chili year is going by rather fast. It is already February. Hopefully your Pod has already planned and scheduled your required pod chili cookoff. Remember that it needs to be advertized and it should be submitted to the Upcomings at least 60 days in advance.

I want to bring some items to the attention of those of you who are Referee's or Head Judge for a cookoff. According to the Rulebook, the Referee is to attend the cookoff in time to observe the cooks' registration and attend the cooks' meeting. The Head Judge conducts the head cooks' meeting the day of the cookoff. We have a large group of new cooks. It is important that these cooks are taken under your wings and have you help them learn the rules and guide them as they become CASI cooks. Sometimes we forget that not everybody is a seasoned cook and either do a quick cooks meeting or not do one at all. Since the Head Judge and the Referee are present during the registration time, you will be aware of those cooks that might need a little mentoring.

If you have an address or telephone change or even maybe your email address, please send it to me so I can update your personal record. Many of us use this as the place to find your contact information. I get some surprises some days when I call a number and find that it has not been current for several years. Also, if you want a log on for CIS, please send me your request.

This is a busy time during the chili year. It is after the Holidays and it is getting close to half way through the chili year, so we begin in earnest looking for points. There are a lot of cookoffs every weekend. We are getting a lot of request everyday to have a new cookoff. The word about CASI and our mission is spreading. This is the result of each of you promoting CASI! You are doing a great job. Remember Chili, Charity, and Fun!

Happy Valentine's Day!

Janice

DRINKABILITY
DRINKABILITY
Bud Light is now dressed to refresh with a bold new look for the just-right taste you've always loved. Easy to drink, never too heavy and never too light- that's Drinkability. It won't fill you up and never lets you down. So, when you're looking to keep the good times going, look for the fresh new label on a cold Bud Light. THE DIFFERENCE IS DRINKABILITY.

CASI Scholarship Program

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM APPLICATIONS

I would like to commend all the scholarship recipients for a job well done this past semester. Spring checks have been issued and not a one (hopefully) has been returned because either the student is no longer enrolled in school or has changed schools and has not let us know where to send the new check.

By the end of February, I will send the applications for 2011 to the committee for their review. They will send me their recommendations in March and the applicants will receive word of their status in April. I would like to wish good luck to all applicants.

Barbara Herrin
CASI Scholarship Program Administrator

Dear CASI/Local Scholarship Foundation,

I would like to earnestly thank all who are helping me achieve my goal of a further education. This scholarship is going to greatly assist me in gaining a degree in interdisciplinary studies. Because I am from such a rural area, and such a small school system, I want to earn my teaching degree and continue giving students like myself opportunities to broaden their horizons. Once again, thank you. Without this scholarship, my dream would still just be an intangible dream.

Sincerely, Ayla Smith

Scholarship Update

January 7, 2011

Dear CASI,

As an update to my college scholarship, I want to inform you all on where I stand and my upcoming future plans. My GPA is a 2.75 currently, but luckily, I have all the hard courses out of the way (except for Chemistry this semester!) and hope moving forward my GPA will get better. I will graduate from Tyler Junior College this May with an Associates Degree. I am still undecided between two universities for completion of my Bachelor's in Education. It will be either University of North Texas or UT Tyler.

I appreciate the scholarship you have awarded me and cannot tell you enough how much it helps each semester. I attended one chili cook-off this year and as always – had a great time. My favorite part is still getting to eat the left over chili after turn in!

Thank you again,

Tatum Foster

Now that's cold.....

I just got off the phone with friend in Montana He said that since early this morning the snow has been nearly waist deep and is still falling.

The temperature is dropping below zero and the north wind is increasing.

His wife has done nothing but look through the kitchen window all day long.

He says that if it gets much worse, he may have to let her in.

Advice for the chili forlorn

The chili year is well underway now and a toast goes out to many of you who are already qualified to cook at the big one in November. Hopefully everyone has some points and if you don't then let this mature person help. I didn't say old. Old would mean not able to spin around the dance floor with some of you young bucks. Not that the dance floor is an all night option, just sayin'.

There has been a lot of talk about cooks not getting their Terlingua Trails or getting them very late. Rest assured, Miss Dana is looking into this. Seems like the first stagecoach out of Kerrville, TX with the December issue was attacked by terrorists or something. Made the stocking a bit lighter for some of us this Christmas. Anyway, they say the General in Washington DC is on it. Don't know if they are talking about the Surgeon General, the Postmaster General or those handsome men in uniform at the Pentagon.

Someone asked why I don't have a picture at the top of the column like the other scribes. OK, I'll send a picture in next month for the March issue. Got to find my Kodak first.

Dear Melba,

I have been adding extra heat to my chili for these winter cookoffs and it's not working. Should I cut heat out even though it is cold outside?
Too hot in Houston

Dear THIT,

Some parts of the country like hotter chili than others do. It seems that chili overall is not as hot as it used to be. One thing you should do before cooking is to find out where the judges will be tasting the entries. They may not want hot chili if they are judging in a warm room.
Melba

Dear Melba,

A friend of mine volunteers for a local charity who would like to have a chili cookoff. What should I do?
Curious in Cleveland

Dear CIC,

It doesn't matter if you are in Ohio, Texas or Mississippi, CASI can find room for another cookoff and a charity to help. Find out who your Referee is and call them for help. An alternate would be a local POD, most put on other cookoffs during the year in addition to their own. They will get with Dorathy Williams and set up your charity with a date and packet. Be sure to allow plenty of time for advertising.
Melba

Until next time, go out, cook a pot, and hug a cook, especially the old ones.

Christmas continued from page 1

three college buddies to show them how to cook chili. Their friendship started at age 17, in 1946, when they were freshman in the same outfit in the Corps of Cadets at Texas A&M University. They all graduated together in 1950 and have remained friends for over 60 years. They have a great time catching up and telling old stories but Malcolm's first place finish was a great way to top off the day. Malcolm hasn't placed first in a while but his friends thought the win was routine, he didn't tell them any better.

Friends of CASI Sponsors are providing the CASI Awards this year. They are also providing a $4,000 Friends of CASI Scholarship. Please extend your thanks and support for their efforts.

FRIENDS OF CASI

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize the group that came together this year to underwrite the CASI TICC awards. When I put out the call for participants in Friends of CASI, I was overwhelmed with the response. This support came not only from existing sponsors, but in large part by CASI members and pods. We were able to meet our goal for the trophies, jackets, stoves and new chair program in short order. There were also funds to grant a Friends of CASI scholarship of 4,000. to some worthy student this spring.

In these difficult economic times it is encouraging that we could reach out to smaller donors to accomplish this goal. While the constituents in this group will change from year to year, the groundwork is set for this to be a valuable resource to our organization. There will undoubtedly be many projects that Friends of CASI can participate in.

There is a page in the Terlingua Trails devoted to these fine individuals and firms. Please note who they are and take the time to thank them for their contributions. You can never thank people enough for this kind of support.

Free Quarter Page Ad to CASI Pods, State, Regional and International Opens

As a CASI Pod you are required to put on a pod cookoff once a year. To help you advertise your pod cookoff we allow each pod to place one quarter page ad in the Terlingua Trails, each year, free of charge. This ad should run the month before your cookoff occurs. Should you decide that you need an ad larger than a quarter page we will simply bill you for the difference in price. This ad should not be confused with the article advertising your cookoff in the "Cooking with CASI Calendar" section in the Terlingua Trails. That article will start to run as soon as you request your cookoff packet and will run until your cookoff occurs.
